Well, if you are not a complaint address, then you should not advertise yourself as one!

And where, dear asshole, do you suppose I "advertise" this address as a complaint address?

STUPID unprofessional idiots like yourself should not have a web site up of you cannot keep up with your alleged services.

Where exactly is this alleged website with this alleged services, fucknuts?

Perhaps if you took the time to master the art of reading, then you might be able to move on to comprehension of the English language, which is evidently lacking from your list of achievements, unlike being an aggressive dimwit.

Now scat, before I feed you to the wolves.

Shithead.

Please take the appropriate action to ban this company from the web. They are repeatedly sending SPAM junk mail to me as well as millions of others for their online lotto scam.

Can you explain to me why you are sending this spam to me? I am not some sort of complaint address, and I certainly get enough of my own spam without having to contend with yours.
